SOCIETY EDITOR.

While the Country Club does not open for another few weeks and the card clubs are not yet reorganized there is every evidence that the "season" is here. The general trend of conversation indicates it for the dull summer gossip has given way to talk of winter's sojourn. The subject of the social calendar was not of the most vital interest to fashionable folk yesterday however, for the announcement of the engagement of Miss Ruth Salisbury Goddard to Lindley C. Morton was all that was discussed. Even-everyone is delighted that the charming sister of equally charming Mrs. H. L. Allen is to become the bride of one of the most popular clubmen of Phoenix. There are rumors that the wedding is not to take place for a year which would be disappointing to say the least. Miss Goddard visited here a short time early in the autumn and all those who had the pleasure of meeting the attractive young girl are awaiting her return with more than a little pleasure.

Mr. Morton is in Salisbury, Conn., where Rev. and Mrs. John Calvin Butler announced the engagement Wednesday. He will return in October.

Society will regret to learn the contemplated departure of Katherine Wisner McCluskey who plans leaving early in October to again become a member of the faculty of the Cammock school. While she has not definitely completed her arrangements, Mrs. McCluskey anticipates leaving in a fortnight to be in Los Angeles for the opening of school on the fifth of October. Her class work will be with the seniors and she will also give a series of readings in connection with a lecture course on English poetry by Miss Brooks, a western coast lecturer of repute.

The club and social sets will more than mildly miss Mrs. McCluskey, whose exquisitely artistic programs were among the few really worth while features of last season's diversions. She has contributed to many entertainments and has directed several successful productions given by the college club and the Woman's club. She was an invaluable member of the art and literature department of the latter organization. Mrs. McCluskey has promised to pass her holidays in Phoenix and will be here for the Thanksgiving, Christmas, Easter and Spring vacations, but her visits will be for rest and recreation.

Cards are out announcing the marriage of Miss Lottie Lee Whitt, daughter of Addison Murphy Whitt, to Benjamin Jay Pearce which took place in Los Angeles, Wednesday, August 18th. Mr. and Mrs. Pearce are passing their honeymoon in the east and will be at home in Williams, Arizona after October 1. The bride is a well known and well liked Phoenix girl who for the past two years has been connected with the public schools of this city. She has a delightful personality and is a musician of ability. Mr. Pearce is associated in engineering and construction work with Hon. Thomas Maddock of Williams.

Miss Isabel Irvine of 1221 North Second street has returned from a two months absence in Missouri where she was the guest of her cousin Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Miller.

Miss Henrietta Olney will leave the first of the month for New York, where she will attend Miss Ely's school for a year. Miss Olney was the most popular debutante last season and her return to school will be regretted greatly by those with whom this charming girl is a favorite. She will be accompanied east by her mother, Mrs. George Olney and Mrs. W. J. Kingsbury who will remain in New York for a month.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Sweeney are the guests of their daughter Mrs. Jack Rice of San Francisco having arrived in California recently from Vancouver.

Mrs. E. J. Bennett returned Sunday from Iron Springs where she had a cottage for the season.

Mrs. W. S. Goldworthy is passing the week end in Prescott.

The E. T. Collings who summered in Iron Springs have returned to town for the season.

Hon. Thomas Maddock and Mrs. Maddock left Tuesday for a fortnight's absence in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. Harry Kay will return this morning from a two months absence on the coast, the greater part of which time was passed in San Francisco.

Mr. and Mrs. J. F. Johnson who recently concluded a tour of Southern California are now in San Francisco. They will return home the first of October.

Mrs. W. K. James and Miss Edith James returned Sunday from Iron Springs where they passed a few weeks following a fortnight's stay on the California coast.

Judge and Mrs. D. L. Cunningham are at home again after a delightful summer in California.

from California. They visited the ex-position and passed a month in Ocean Park.

William Coleman Rogers who summered at the Atlantic coast resorts is now in New York. He expects to return to Phoenix the first of October.

Mrs. B. A. Fickas and her daughter Mrs. Eugene Redewill returned Friday from California where they passed the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Harold C. Bennett will return in a day or two from the coast. They toured California during the summer and left Los Angeles Thursday in their car for home.

Mrs. Charles Stauffer returned yesterday from Long Beach, San Francisco and San Diego where she passed the summer season.

Mrs. H. B. Wilkinson closed her place at Iron Springs last week, returning home on Sunday. During the season she had as guests Mr. and Mrs. B. B. Kohlman and Mrs. L. H. Wilkie of Chicago with whom she toured to the Grand Canyon and Roosevelt.

Mrs. Webb Griffin who was among the Phoenixians who summered at Long Beach returned yesterday.

Dr. Charles Gowan has gone to California for a fortnight's vacation.

Mrs. A. W. Morrill will return today from Pinetree where she summered.

Dr. and Mrs. Francis H. Redewill returned Monday from San Francisco. Mrs. Victor Redewill who also summered in California was among the returned travelers of Thursday.

CLUB NOTES

Official Organ State Federation of Clubs

Mrs. Henry D. Ross, president of the Arizona Federation of Women's Clubs has returned from a two months vacation on the coast. Although the club season will not begin until October, Mrs. Ross will immediately take over her duties and receive any club communications by person, mail or phone. The early autumn program of the distinguished club leader will deal largely with matters pertaining to the state federation. She will shortly prepare the program for the annual convention of the federation to be held in Tucson in January.

Mrs. Josiah Evans Corioles of Los Angeles always an interesting and prominent figure in national clubdom has become more so in the past fortnight since her name has been forwarded. As president of the general federation, in a recent bulletin issued by the national organization Mrs. Corioles, who is chairman of the Peace committee, is the Department of Education of the General Federation of Women's Clubs, expressed satisfaction with the genuine interest shown by the club women of the United States in this subject.

It has been said that the problem of world peace is the problem not of peace treaties, arbitration clauses and The Hague courts, but of mutual good will and understanding among nations, and it is in helping to promote this spirit of confidence and good will that the General Federation is particularly qualified to render valuable assistance. There are no states and few communities where there are not women's clubs. Each group has a potentiality of tremendous power. Does each woman of each group know the real facts about war? Does she see to it that her family has other reading than the daily newspaper accounts of the sanguinary conflicts that are maiming and mowing down human beings by the thousands?

"In all localities," continues, Mrs. Corioles, "there are people who know nothing of the General Federation of Women's Clubs. This vital, throbbing, human theme of war offers just the point of contact that may enlist the active co-operation of circles upon circles of women hitherto not attracted by clubs, and these in turn may influence other circles, in a constantly extending radii."

Mrs. Corioles calls attention to the many educational forces at work in this field, such as the new dramas that drive home the horrible truths about war, the special courses offered by universities and state normal schools, the magazines and illustrated papers with technical and popular articles on various phases of international warfare.

The Madison Improvement Club will hold its first business meeting of the year Thursday, October 7.

The Girls Self Improvement club will meet in all day session Saturday at the home of the president, Miss Eugenia Glascock. There will be a luncheon in honor of Miss Frances Hedgpath followed by the regular business meeting. A feature of the gathering will be the informal address on the Panama-Pacific International Exposition by Miss Carmelita Ward, a member of the club who recently returned from an extensive motor tour of California.

A conference of unusual interest to the women of the General Federation of Women's Clubs will be held in Minneapolis, October 6-9. This is the national housing conference, one of the directors of which is Mrs. Albion Fellows Bacon, chairman of the Shelter Committee in the General Federation, a new committee under the Home Eco-

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Dorris of Casa de Rosas returned Tuesday from California. They passed the spring in White Salmon, Washington with their daughter Mrs. Sidney Boddingtonhouse and later visited their other daughter, Mrs. William Harrison Lewis in San Francisco. Mrs. Lewis contemplates passing the late autumn season in Phoenix to the delight of her host of friends.

Congressman and Mrs. Carl Hayden plan to be at their ranch near Tempe the greater part of autumn. With the exception of a fortnight in the southern part of the state they will pass their entire time in Arizona at their home where their many friends are always sure of a cordial welcome from the genial congressman and his charming wife.

Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Francis have returned from a two months motor tour. Their itinerary included all the points of interest in California and Nevada.

Miss Betty Talcott of Rockford, Ill., who was one of the most popular out of town visitors here a season ago will return in the course of a fortnight to be the guest of Mrs. Royal Lescher for several weeks. Miss Talcott is an unusually attractive girl and will be much feted while in town, especially since she is to be entertained by Mrs. Lescher, who is most lavish in her hospitality. Miss Jane Rider of Tucson is at present enjoying a stay in town as Mrs. Lescher's guest having motored over from the Old Pueblo for the week-end.

Mrs. William Burton McCandless returned Monday from a six weeks absence in Santa Monica where she was the guest of Mrs. V. E. Hanny. Mr. and Mrs. Hanny will not return before October 1.

The last day of the conference will be devoted to a Housing Institute, and Mrs. Bacon will preside at the Round Table luncheon that day, the subject being "Woman's Part in the Housing Movement". The program of the entire conference will be of special value to the General Federation, Department of Department of Civic, Home Economics, Health and Industrial and Social Conditions. While "Shelter" will be the main subject, every phase of good and bad housing will be emphasized, and the effect of the house upon the home and upon the community. Standards of construction, maintenance and management will be considered, and also land subdivision and taxation. Experts of international fame, from the United States and Canada, health officers, sanitarians, city planners and architects will give the results of their experience and special training.

This conference will be followed with interest by club women, the majority of whom are actively concerned in the subject discussed which will later be reflected in the local club programs.

Mrs. Eugene Brady O'Neill, president of the Civic League since its organization four years ago was re-elected to the office which she has so capably filled Wednesday when the league held its annual business meeting. Dr. Ross Goodrich Boldt, who has been first vice president, Mrs. F. A. Beane, second vice president, Mrs. J. H. Williams, secretary, Mrs. Edward Younger, treasurer and Mrs. F. C. Struckmeyer auditor. There was a general discussion of methods to be employed in the clean up campaign to be conducted by the league during the coming month.

W. J. Osborn, probation officer, will be the principal speaker at the Wednesday meeting of the Chamber of Commerce when he will tell of the work accomplished by his department since the first of the year.

The club women of Colorado are putting on the most gigantic advertising feature ever produced in the west. The idea is a unique one and every firm of consequence in the U. S. A. and in every U. S. possession is asked to participate in the exhibit and sale of samples. While the affair is put on under the simple title of a "Sample Sale" all manufacturers, all wholesale or retail companies are given the privilege of displaying their wares, in Denver's great municipal Auditorium by simply donating to the club women the article which the firm wishes to advertise.

The women do not ask charity but expect mutual benefits for their enterprise. All contributions will be placed in a section designated for the state from which it comes and women who are from that particular state will have charge of the exhibit. Such a plan could only materialize in such cosmopolitan cities as Denver or New York, where the population is made up from their respective states and they expect to make this big advertising enterprise not only help their own state, but be a boost for national prosperity.

If you have any article which you particularly wish advertised or placed before the western public, write to the president of the Colorado Federation of Women's Clubs, Woman's Club Building, Denver.

The opening will be Merchant's Night. The goods will be displayed (Continued on Page Two)
